Getting engaged at the castle

This is the first step when one hand joins another or just a couple of fingers with a bit of warmth in each. And with a lot on the lips, the big question.

If it is just the warmth of your hands, what would you exchange and give for it? The miracle of love, a starry horizon, sweet kisses, a sinful moan... your disobedient curls, lazy mornings, a smile on your face and when you never want to be left alone... a look of passion, face to face, a warm embrace, an engagement gift... your feelings hidden in your heart, a single golden ring.
